

Species name: false indigo-bush (Amorpha fruticosa L.)

Group: plants

Native region (Continent): North America

Local Status: naturalized

Entry paths (if known): intentionally as a honey-bearing and ornamental plant

Observations: It was first recorded in Croatia in the middle of the 20th century, but it has probably been present since before. Today it is widespread in the lowland continental part of Croatia.

Part of the plant

Raceme

Fruits