

Species name: Sally-my-handsome (Carpobrotus acinaciformis)

Group: plant

Native region (Continent): South Africa

Local Status: invasive alien species

Entry paths (if known): It was introduced in Europe in the 1900s mainly as an ornamental plant, but also as dune stabilizer. In Italy it was described for the first time in Sardinia in 1899.

Observations: very common along the coast of Sardinia and widespread in the BioBlitz area.